About Us

BEYOND INK

1992

*Rich Brown &
Chris Rooney*

Founded by industry veterans, Rich Brown and Chris Rooney, BR has been committed to the digital printing of software technical manuals and commercial print since its inception in San Jose, California. Brown and Rooney represent the B and R in BR Printers.

2000

We expand into the educational textbook market, printing K-12 hard and soft cover books, workbooks, and teacher guides.

2005

With innovation running through our blood, we reimagine the textbook rebinding process, extending the life of gently used books by applying new covers – and saving school districts thousands of dollars.

2007

Supporting east coast-based book publishers, we head to Kentucky and build a digital book making facility in Independence, KY.

2009

First Ricoh roll-fed ink jet press installed in KY

2012

Investment in our future continues with the installation of our first HP T200 roll-fed ink jet press in San Jose, CA.

2013

Adam DeMaestri

Adam DeMaestri is named President of BR.

2017

Driving our desire to help our customers succeed in the constantly changing landscape beyond print, we expand into the promotional product, apparel sourcing, branding and fulfillment arena.

2018

We expand into the Denver, Colorado market with the acquisition of direct mail and fulfillment operation Endpoint Direct.

2020

Our roll across the country continues with two acquisitions. Short run digital, wide format and promo products company CMC Print-On-Demand in Fremont, California and National Graphics Solutions (NGS), a web offset book printer in Appleton, Wisconsin.

2021

The acquisition of San Diego, California based promotional product marketer Casa del Mar adds custom apparel and embroidery to our capabilities. CJK, a prominent Cincinnati-based book printer bolsters our mid-west operations.

2022

Acquires EPIC labeling solutions, C&D Printing, Egan Printing Co, and Ross4Marketing. BR Commercial Print Group is formed in Denver, CO.

2023

Capabilities diversify with the addition of packaging solutions through the acquisition of JP Graphics of Appleton, WI. Added digital capacity with two additional HP T240's.

BR Kentucky Independence, KY

BOOKS, FULFILLMENT

ABOUT BR KY

BR KY specializes in digital printing, binding, and fulfillment of educational and higher education books.

Our versatility as a digital book manufacturer allows us to add value to supply chains through nimble custom workflows and solutions. It's not just about the manufacturing technology we employ; our differentiation lies in our commitment to quality, competitive pricing, on-time delivery, and technical expertise. We strive to partner with our customers, offering cost-effective solutions and maintaining open lines of communication throughout the production process to ensure their satisfaction.

Industries Primarily Served

Our primary customer base includes publishers, particularly in the education sector, with a focus on higher education materials such as trade and reference books, workbooks, lab manuals, and children's books K-12. Additionally, we produce curriculum and assessment products, which are then sent to BR OH for kitting and assembly.

The majority of our products are digital four-color prints, with a smaller percentage being mono. Soft-covered perfect-bound books make up around 70% of our production, followed by spiral, stitched, and looseleaf products. While case-bound work represents a small portion of our production, we do offer this option as well.

BR KY Capabilities

We have incorporated a new HP T240 (two on site) and state-of-the-art digital Muller binding system, which will significantly increase our throughput by nearly 80%. This upgrade will enable us to consistently handle all our binding lines, including case-bound work.

BR Ohio Cincinnati, OH

BOOKS, FULFILLMENT

ABOUT BR OHIO

BR Ohio is a one-stop shop for customers seeking printing, binding, and mailing of four-color bound documents, such as books, catalogs, manuals, weeklies, and magazines.

Our focus is on providing a strong combination of quality and support, rather than solely competing on price. We guarantee that our customers will never be caught off guard or disappointed with our services.

Industries We Serve

Currently, BR Ohio caters to the Educational publisher market, with a focus on K-12 and college softcover textbooks, which make up more than 80% of our clientele. Additionally, we work with religious publishers and handle some trade catalogs and guides.

In terms of offset books, our target is to produce four-color, perfect bound or saddle-stitched books. Typically, our production runs range from 5,000 to 20,000 books, with the possibility of going up to 40,000. The trim size we work with is 8.5" x 10.875", and the page count needs to be divisible by 16, with 32 being the optimal choice. Our offset books can have a minimum of 96 pages, and the maximum page count depends on the PPI (pages per inch) of the paper.

Why BR Ohio?

BR Ohio has a long-standing reputation for delivering a quality product, providing outstanding support, and maintaining proactive communication. Formerly known as CJ Krehbiel Company, which was founded in 1872, BR Ohio represents a legacy of excellence. Our commitment to values such as excellence, agility, teamwork, and sincerity in dealing with our customers has contributed to our success. In fact, our top customers have been with us for an average of 12+ years.

Large and wide format printing solutions should not be a "one size fits all". Our professional printing services provide high quality custom printed materials that get the attention of others and entice them to interact and learn more about your company

Comprehensive Project Management

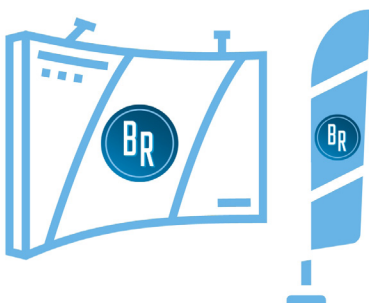

Dedicated customer service reps facilitate quick turns and expedited delivery of your signage programs, coordinating kitting, packaging and installation when required.

Intuitive Storefront and Order Portals

Allow your sales reps, agents, franchise owners and more to place orders for signage, banners, point-of-sale displays, promotional items and other marketing materials directly through a built-just-for-you storefront or portal. Lock in corporate branding to maintain consistency, and preselect signage types, styles and sizing for continuity.

Full-service Installation Services Ensure your Brand is Properly Displayed Front and Center

We're here if you need us to securely and accurately install or place signage throughout your store, workplace or organization. Professional installers make your vision reality.

BEYOND INK

KEY BENEFITS

- END-TO-END SOLUTION
- WEB-TO-PRINT INTERFACE
- CUSTOM FINISHING & PACKAGING
- INVENTORY & ORDER MANAGEMENT AUTOMATION
- DISTRIBUTED PRODUCTION & LOGISTICS MODEL

Customizable and Scalable Solutions

No two programs are alike, so don't settle for a one-size-fits-all fulfillment solution. Take advantage of our size and scale to build your program exactly to meet your needs.

The Advantage of Location

Why settle for a fulfillment provider with one location? BR's national footprint includes 3 strategically located centers, reducing time to market and shipping costs.

Faster Order to Shipment Turn Times

Delight your customers. When integrating our systems directly into yours it facilitates quicker receipt of orders, product pulls, kitting, fulfillment, and shipment—arriving at your customer's location within days.

Automated Systems

Automated systems put information at your fingertips inventory management automation quickly informs you of product stocking levels, sparking reorder reminders so you never run out.

Order management automation provides visibility into process and status so you can closely follow your programs out the door.

Easy eCommerce & Customer API Integration

Your business is making and selling products. As your 3pl provider we integrate with multiple sales channels and shopping carts, including ebay, amazon, and walmart, to package and ship directly to your customers.

We offer integration directly with your established customer APIs. No need to adapt your systems to us: our in-house it development team bridges the link between your operating protocols and our systems ensuring a smooth transition with minimal downtime.

Leverage our network

For faster, and more economical, product sourcing, leverage our network. Let us handle domestic and overseas supply chain sourcing and customs assistance, freeing up your staff to concentrate on your business growth objectives.

State-of-the-Art Warehousing

Rest easy with state-of-the-art, secure warehousing facilities. Clean, organized and automated inventory receipt, stocking, location tagging, and usage allows us to keep track of thousands of product sku's in our well-lit, secure facilities.

Your Logistics Advantage

Think about the shipping volume of your programs combined with the shipping volume of all our other customers. This affords you more advantageous freight rates than if you go it alone.

Regardless if its tens, hundreds or thousands of sku's, hourly, daily or weekly orders, br is the one source to elevate your fulfillment program and take your organization to the next level.

Compare BR Fulfillment Solutions to your current operation.

Contact us at info-co@brprinters.com to schedule an immediate evaluation.

Conducting your own fulfillment can be a very expensive undertaking. The costs of security, labor, rent, materials, logistics—among other things will drain resources for your core business operations. Put the capital you would be spending into a 3PL partnership that offers more value.
